Between Us

With the first real touch of weather, most of us are becoming vacation minded, our thoughts turning either to the beaches of mountains. One group of matrons already have had a lovely week end at Daytona Beach. When Ann Ramsey, Maybelle Mathews and Georgia Turner were getting ready to go down by way of the Silver Meteor for a visit with its Sharpe, they were more thrilled than a bunch of high school girls. Bert Ramsey, who met them in Savannah Monday evening, declares he wasn't able to get in one word en route to Statesboro.—The W. S. Hanners and W. S. Jr. are planning to leave as soon as the college term is out for an extended trip to Colorado and Yellowstone Park.—Just as Nell Dougherty Rogers learned where she lived in Savannah, she moves to St. Petersburg, Fla., and will have to learn all over again. Nell, who was recently married to Jimmy Rogers, went to Savannah and was carried out to her new apartment by her sister. Her husband was ill, and asked Nell to go to the corner drug store for medicine, the distance being about a five-minute walk. Nell hurried out, neglecting to notice her apartment number. As she returned she stopped at an apartment building; wrong number; then the search began. After several minutes two Statesboro boys rode by, and Nell solicited their aid. They rode in the vicinity for more than thirty minutes; about to give up when Jimmy, who had become alarmed over the long absence, appeared on the porch just as the group rode by. You can imagine the shriek when Nell saw him. So we are betting that she will be very house-number conscious after this experience, but who could take it with more ease than she!—Mrs. A. P. Kendrick, guest of Cora Williams, greeting friends and old neighbors after twenty years, and being the inspiration for many lovely informal parties.—Mary Walden Hendrix, beautiful little daughter of Mary Alice and Milton Hendrix, of Tallahassee, Fla., seen down town dressed in a darling striped suit.—Sara Frances Kennedy very excitedly making preparations for a trip to Washington, D. C., and other places of interest with the Register High School seniors.—Lollie Cobb very interestingly discussing her work as third grade teacher in the largest rural consolidated school in the world. It is located near Four Oaks, N. C., and has an enrollment of two thousand pupils, and all are dismissed on the grounds at the same hour.—Betty Jean Cone trying to teach her daddy horse-back riding. He was having a little difficulty mounting; not quite as agile as might have been expected about thirty years ago.—Many of us are envious of Sara Poindexter's summer plans. Sara, who has done quite well in journalism at the University of Georgia last year, is to be the first of the Simons at St. Simons as reporter for the St. Simons paper. We are not more envious than we are proud of you.

Sara.—If you would like to see a very lovely affair in which two clans of very realistic gypsies are concerned, don't fail to go to the senior class night this (Thursday) evening at the gym (which has been turned into a woodland), at 8:15 o'clock.—Will see you AROUND TOWN.

LABORATORY FACULTY ENTERTAINED

Members of the Laboratory School faculty were delightfully entertained Tuesday evening by Mrs. Charles Z. Donaldson and Graham Donaldson with a dessert party at their home on College street. An effective decoration of Dorothy Perkins roses and blue-salvia was used throughout the home. In a popular slogan guessing game the prize was won by Harris Harvill. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Walter Downs, Mr. and Mrs. Ewell Piggs, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Harvill, Knapp Bodiford, Miss Mary Will Wakeford, Miss Marie Wood, Mrs. Robinson, Miss McIlveen, Miss Queen Elizabeth Collins, Miss Meg Gunter, Miss Estes and Malcolm Parker.

WINSLOW CLUB

Members of the Winslow Club were delightfully entertained Thursday evening by Miss Lillian Blankenship. For high score in bridge Mrs. George Mathis won toilet water, and also received kitchen towels as guest prize. Miss Aline Whitstide was given toilet soap for low, and for cut Miss Lucile Higginbotham received hose. Dainty party refreshments were served, and other players were Miss Ruby Lee Jones, Miss Margaret Watkins, Miss Sara Hall and Miss Nell Blackburn.

HANNERS LOVELY HOSTS

Friday evening a lovely dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hanner at their home on South College street. Red, white and blue flower combination and blue candles formed the central decorations for the table and a three-course dinner was served. Covers were placed for Z. S. Henderson, of Chicago; Miss Mae Michael, Dr. M. S. Pittman, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hanner and W. S. Jr. Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Hanner were hosts to a number of guests at a bridge supper. Supper was served buffet style, and the attractive table was lace covered with a bowl of mixed garden flowers as centerpiece. For high scores in bridge Mrs. E. L. Barnes received a box of stationery and Paul Thompson won two handkerchiefs. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Pulliam, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Fielding Russell, and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smiley.

VIRGINIA VISITOR IS COMPLIMENTED

A number of lovely parties have been given during the week as a compliment to Mrs. A. P. Kendrick, of Hampton, Va., guest of Mrs. Frank Williams. Friday morning Mrs. Williams entertained twenty guests in honor of her house guest. The rooms were decorated with quantities of spring flowers: Pansies, daisies and cookies were served.

Mrs. Frank Grimes and Mrs. Dan Lester were hostesses at a luncheon Tuesday at the Jackel Hotel. Mary Wallace roses and pink and blue snapdragons in a handpainted bowl was used as a centerpiece and the place cards were handpainted with sweet peas. A four-course luncheon was served and covers were laid for Mrs. Kendrick, Mrs. Frank Williams, Mrs. A. J. Mooney, Mrs. Cecil Brannen, Miss Eunice Lester, Mrs. R. L. Cone, Mrs. R. J. H. DeLoach, Mrs. Dean Anderson, Mrs. J. E. Donohoe and Mrs. Fred Lanier.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. W. H. Aldred Sr. and Mrs. O. L. McElmore complimented Mrs. Kendrick with an informal seated tea at the home of Mrs. Aldred. A variety of colorful flowers was used as decorations and refreshments consisted of ice cream, pound cake and mints. Guests were Mesdames Kendrick, Frank Williams, Frank Grimes, Dan Lester, A. J. Mooney, E. J. Kennedy, J. H. Watson, Fred Lanier, B. H. Ramsey, C. P. Olliff, Lowell Mallard, Dean Anderson, D. B. Turner, Hinson Remington, E. A. Smith, A. S. Kelly, A. B. Green, J. L. Mathews, J. L. Johnson, R. L. Cone, J. L. Zetterover, B. V. Collins and Miss Mary Lou Carmichael.

HENDRIX-JONES

Of widespread interest to their many friends in Bulloch county and Savannah is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Bernice Hendrix, of Statesboro, to J. Prescott Jones, of Savannah, which was solemnized Friday afternoon, May 16, at 4 o'clock, on the twenty-first wedding anniversary of the bride's parents, at the Methodist parsonage in Statesboro, with the Rev. Dr. Bascom Anthony, of Macon, officiating. There were no attendants and the ring ceremony was read in the presence of the two families and a few close friends.

The bride was smartly dressed in a lovely model of navy blue alpaca crepe trimmed with white eyelid embroidery and lace. Her small hat of white Teyo straw, an Abbe sailor style, was trimmed with navy grosgrain ribbon. Her other accessories were white and navy, and she wore a shoulder corsage of white carnations and sweet peas.

The bride is the older daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Hendrix and is the granddaughter of Mrs. J. W. Clark and the late Mr. Clark, also of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hendrix, all pioneer families of Bulloch county.

The groom is the only son of Mrs. G. N. Strickland and the late J. Prescott Jones, of Savannah. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for a short wedding trip through Florida, and on their return will be at home at 222 Gwinnett street, Savannah, where he holds a responsible position with the firm of Clark and Clark.

BAILEY FAMILY AT ANNUAL DINNER

Members and In-Laws Meet For Reunion Sunday At Ira Bailey Home Near Leafield

When members and friends of the Henry Bailey family assembled Sunday in their annual reunion, there were present a hundred or more direct descendants and in-laws. The dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bailey, which is in the Hagin district a couple of miles or so from Leafield.

The Ira Bailey mill pond is one of the beauty spots of Bulloch county, embracing a placid body of water surrounded by a forest of green trees and shrubbery. The place was formerly known as the Davis mill, the property of the late W. D. Davis until its acquisition by Mr. Bailey about twenty years ago. The basket dinner was spread upon a long table in the spacious mill house, and never was a more sumptuous repast set before any throng.

The Henry Bailey family embraces a large membership which extends into still other large connections, and when these and their friends assemble it is an important assemblage. A roll call of the large family relationships would include also Mallards and Brantleys, themselves recognized as outstanding families of the recent generation. Morgan Mallard, son of the late St. Mallard, married a daughter of Henry Bailey, and his family, now residing elsewhere, includes a large number of substantial sons and daughters, many of whom were present at the Sunday dinner.

W. J. Brantley, known as one of Bulloch county's most successful farmers for the past half century, now residing at Albany, also attended, and he and members of his substantial family contributed largely to the Sunday throng. Besides these there were many lesser family groups present, some of whose relationships were remote, but nevertheless entitled to share in the day's pleasures.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey were most gracious in their dispensation of hospitality and the day was most delightful.

STAMPS ARE AID NATIONAL DEFENSE Farmers are Urged To Participate in Plan To Encourage Crop Control

Cotton stamps are part of the national defense program as well as a means of adding to the cotton farmers' income. Harry A. Aspinwall, district S.M.A. representative, declared at the Farm Bureau meeting Friday night.

Mr. Aspinwall pointed out that farmers co-operating with the program were also permitted to earn additional payments by putting this reduced cotton acreage in food and feed crops. He explained that the stamps would buy any cotton goods manufactured in the United States, such as plow lines, towels, sheets, shirts, dresses, overalls, etc.

Applications for stamps are being filed as fast as the performance on farms is checked and certified to by the county AAA committee.

Mrs. L. F. Martin reported that the curb market is selling some $60 average each Saturday. Mr. Martin also stated that farm women selling on the market were making special effort to improve the market by taking study courses under the direction of specialists in the various products they are offering.

WAS THIS YOU? You were very cool looking when seen in town early Wednesday morning dressed in a pretty green linen dress and brown and white shoes. You have brown eyes and dark hair. You have a very lovely country place near town. We would describe you as a most energetic person. You have two attractive children, a son and a daughter.

If the lady described will call at the Times office, she will receive two tickets of admission to the picture, "Meet Mr. Doe," showing to the show Friday afternoon and said it was a great picture.

Successful completion of the ground school work by a student will give him credit for one course, Aviation 315, as an elective.

Expenses heretofore for the course have been $15 to cover the physical examination and insurance. Any one interested, and who can qualify, might sign up on a notice which is posted on the bulletin board in the hall of the administration building at Teachers College.

Speaking of appearance, one of our henpecked friends says he has been trying it at his house for twenty years and it seldom works.

Remember the good old day, when we had nothing greater to annoy us than a squeaky pair of shoes?

89 SENIORS WILL FINISH COLLEGE

Eighty-nine seniors will receive their B.S. degrees in education from Georgia Teachers College Friday, June 6th, at 11:30, in the college auditorium. Guy H. Wells, L.L.D., former president of the college and at present president of G.S.C.W., at Milledgeville, will deliver the baccalaureate address. Likewise four students will be awarded junior college diplomas and one a normal degree.

Graduation exercises will get under way Sunday at 11:30 when Raimundo de Ovies, dean of St. Philips Pro-Cathedral, of Atlanta, delivers the baccalaureate sermon in the auditorium.

Dr. Wells is a popular speaker and an outstanding figure in education throughout Georgia and the nation. He was recently elected district governor of the Rotary Club of Georgia. As he was president of the college until 1934, his being here will be a fitting compliment.

Mr. Ovies, who will give the sermon, was one time chaplain of the University of the South at Sewanee, Tenn., and professor of Bible there. He is an outstanding student of psychology, a syndicated writer, a columnist for the Atlanta Journal, and a lecturer of wide repute.

A complete list of the tentative graduates and their majors is: Social Science: Edward Aguirre, Earl Byrd, Elizabeth Cato, James C. Cato, Edith Davis, Milton Findley, Emily G. Williams, Oliver Reppard, Harold Rieley, Elbert Sanders and Doris Toney.

History: Robert F. Young, Charles Stanfield, Paul E. Lester Jr., James Jordan, Selma Lois Horne, J. A. Gardner Jr. and Robert Alexander.

English: Edwin M. Blue, Elliott Boswell, Virginia Bradley, Arion Cooper, Frances Deal, Alton Ellis, Elizabeth Enecke, Laura Elizabeth Ford, Betty Ann Goble, Marie Hamrick, Sam P. Jones, Emily Lively, Elizabeth McNally, Edna Najler, Theodore Oglesby, Carolyn Oliver, Anna Rogers, Leslie Aubrey Wells, Jeanette Williams, Herman Wrinkle, and Sallie Zetterover.

Music: Carroll Beasley, Catherine Gaine, Elizabeth McLemore and Ella Cook Nease.

General Science: T. A. Bacon, Henry O. Curvey, Chess Faircloth, Hugh Hodges, John King, George Parker, Colbert Purvis, Albert Rodger Jr. and Herman L. Slayden.

Industrial Arts: George Boddiford Jr., Robert Carroll, Edward Cartright, Carlton Carruth, William McGrigge, Geomnon Neville Jr., George Padford and Thomas Webb.

SPEAKER CHANGED FOR HONORS DAY J. D. Cherry, Former Student, To Make Address Instead Of Regent E. Ormande Hunter

A call meeting of the board of regents of the University System of Georgia caused E. Ormande Hunter, school speaker for the Honors Day program at Teachers College Friday, to postpone his engagement. J. D. Cherry, a teacher in the Waycross High School and a graduate of T.C. in 1936, will deliver the address.

Sixteen students, eight for scholarship and the same number for leadership and service, will be awarded honor certificates at this year's Honors Day exercises which will be held in the auditorium Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Cherry was an outstanding student while he attended Georgia Teachers College. During his senior year he served as president of the Student Council, and throughout his entire college career he had a very good scholastic standing. He received honor certificates in 1935 and in 1936 on Honors Day for meritorious leadership and service.

Since leaving T.C. Mr. Cherry has taught in Douglas (Georgia) High School and Waycross High. He has done some very complimentary work in the study of Georgia public school teachers and in attempting to help them to better their professional standards.

Remember the good old day, when we had nothing greater to annoy us than a squeaky pair of shoes?

Plans Made For Summer Session Number of Visiting Teachers Added To The Faculty At Georgia Teachers College

Augmented by several visiting faculty members, and with prospects of a big enrollment, the first session of the 1941 Georgia Teachers College summer school will get under way June 11th.

Each summer Georgia Teachers College holds two summer sessions. This year the first term starts June 11th and last until July 18th. The second term begins July 21st and lasts until August 2nd.

Visiting faculty members will be represented in every division of the college. For the division of education there will be C. J. Cheevers, who has been working in the Gainesville (Georgia) schools; Johnnie Cox, who is working in the Pulaski county; Alfred L. Davis, superintendent of Blackhawk schools; Myra Hall, teacher in the Pelham schools; John Julia McMahon, instructor in laboratory schools at Peabody College, and C. S. Patterson, superintendent of the Clinch county (Georgia) schools. In the industrial department will be William P. Herring, a T.C. graduate who has been teaching in Fitzgerald for the past two years; in English, Mrs. D. L. Deal, of Statesboro; in science, Harold Jones, professor of biology at Berry College, and Nolan E. Rice, professor of biology at Middle Georgia College; in social science, J. T. Ecker, professor of history and social sciences at Middle Georgia College, and Paul Murray, professor of history and social sciences at Georgia Southwest College.

A special feature of this year's summer school sessions will be a "Good Neighbor Institute" which will put emphasis on courses on Latin American countries and on the Spanish language.

LOCAL JAYCEES SPONSOR CHANGE

Vote Endorsement To Proposed Amendment Permit Advertising By The State

P. G. Franklin Jr., of the local Junior Chamber of Commerce, has handed us, with request that it be given publicity as having the endorsement of the organization the statement which follows:

One of the amendments to the state constitution to be submitted to the people of the state on June 3rd which is attracting state-wide interest is a proposal to allow the state government, through its appropriate agencies, to advertise and promote the agricultural, industrial, historic, recreational and natural resources, facilities and assets of the state of Georgia. This amendment to the constitution was sponsored at the recent session of the general assembly by the Georgia Chamber of Commerce, where it was overwhelmingly approved by both the house and the senate. This organization of young men is continuing its efforts to secure public approval for this measure at the polls.

It is pointed out by the directors of the Georgia Junior Chamber of Commerce that the state department of agriculture nor the department of natural resources can do anything to promote the sale and distribution of Georgia agricultural products outside the state, nor can they advertise to the nation our natural resources, recreational facilities and tourist attractions. The adoption of this amendment would make this possible.

A number of other organizations in the state which are interested in the state's agricultural development are also actively supporting this amendment, with the thought that its adoption will be particularly helpful in the marketing of peaches, watermelons, peaches and peaches.

This amendment is identified on the ballot to be used as No. 68, under appropriate wording.

Seventy Constitutional Amendments are Proposed For Georgians to Decide

Next Tuesday is election day in Georgia. On that date the free and untrammelled voters are invited to go to the polls and render their decision on important matters at stake. So far as the voters generally are concerned, the matter to decide is whether to vote yes or no on the 70 proposed constitutional amendments which will appear on the large ballot.

This amendment is identified on the ballot to be used as No. 68, under appropriate wording.

Mr. Brannen started farming where he now lives. He and Mrs. Brannen have lived on this farm since marrying more than forty years ago. Two years ago they were selected as one of four master farm families in Georgia, which indicates that they have been one of the most successful farm families in the state.

Among those present were Robert and Alex Brannen, Austin, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Luke Hendrix and children, Lucille Brannen, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Anderson, J. G. Brannen, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Brannen and children, Mr. and Mrs. Mollie Denmark, Jack Denmark, S. C. Allen, Misses Hall and Pennie Allen, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Brannen, Mrs. R. E. McKee, of Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lanier and children, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brannen and children, Mr. and Mrs. Beauford Hendrix, Metter; Mrs. A. B. Anderson and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Webb Atkins and son, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Marsh, Allen Lanier, Mr. and Mrs. Worth Skinner, Mrs. Mary Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Cason, R. J. Kennedy, Mrs. E. A. Smith, Edith Atkins, Mrs. H. S. Blitch, Miss Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Bradley, Miss Malvina Trussell, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McAllister, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Dyer and son.

HUNDRED ATTEND BIRTHDAY DINNER Members of Family Come From Distance To Join In Brannen Celebration

John H. Brannen celebrated his 67th birthday Sunday with a barbecue. Mr. Brannen invited about 100 members of the family and friends to dinner with him at his home four miles west of Statesboro.

Robert and Alex, his twin sons from Austin, Texas, and his two daughters, Mrs. Luke Hendrix and Miss Lucile Brannen, were all at home for the anniversary event. Among other guests were his oldest brother, J. G. Brannen, now near an invalid, who attended by being carried to Mr. Brannen's on a cot; Mollie Denmark, who was also too feeble to walk, and S. C. Allen, who had to be carried about due to his inability to see. These two latter named are brothers-in-law.

THE LAFAYETTE MONUMENT

Near the town of Dillworth, and on the Brandywine Battlefield in Pennsylvania, stands this monument, erected to the memory of Lafayette by local citizens and school children. In this vicinity the Frenchman, an officer of Washington's army, was wounded while defending Philadelphia from the British force under Lord Cornwallis on September 26, 1777.

Co-Operative Plan Use Of Harvesters

Five combines are reported ready for operation in Bulloch county this season. Dr. W. M. Hagin has one on his farm that will be operated by J. F. Everett, Oliver, W. M. Jones and John McCormick, Brooklet; K. H. Harville and A. J. Trappell, Statesboro, and several others will probably be placed before grain harvesting gets under way.

Mr. Trappell bought the first machine of this type in the county two seasons ago. The addition of these other harvesters is expected to add to the number of farmers saving their seed oats for fall planting.

Several farmers have planted soybeans on the land that they did not get a stand of cotton on and expect to procure a combine to harvest their soybeans this fall.

Bulloch County Boys Given College Trip

Athens, May 27.—Shirley D. Clark, of Statesboro, and L. W. Cane, of Statesboro, returned to Athens from an eight-day field trip with other students in the agronomy department of the University of Georgia.

Thirty-two students made the trip to study the soils of Georgia. They traveled 1,298 miles and examined 101 different soil profiles in the four soil belts of Georgia. They also studied crop conditions with particular reference to winter cover and soil building crops.

The students visited the caves of Stewart county, Fort Benning, Pine Mountain, Valley Rural Rehabilitation Project, the Warm Springs Foundation, the iron ore mine in Polk county, the Ridgefield Farm at Trion, the caves of Lookout Mountain, the eroded area of Copper Hill, Tenn., and the marble quarries at Tate, Ga.

The trip taken annually by agronomy students, is a practical application of principles learned in the classroom.

Statesboro Is Victor Over Cobbtown Team

Statesboro won two more Ogechee league games from the Cobbtown League team on Wednesday, May 21, 18 to 2, and on Thursday at Cobbtown 18 to 7. Holloway hit a home-run with one on base for Statesboro on Wednesday.

Statesboro lost a twelve-inning game to the Union Bag team Sunday by a score of 7 to 6 on the local diamond.

Jack Hines hit a home-run with two on bases in the seventh inning for Statesboro. Stucky, Statesboro's southpaw, allowed only ten hits and struck out ten Union Bag men in the full twelve innings.

Statesboro meets the same Union Bag team here Sunday, June 1st, at 3:30; will meet Sylva here on Wednesday afternoon at 4:30, and will journey to Sylva Thursday to play at 4:30.

Mr. Scott admonished the seniors to help protect democracy by protesting Christianity, the foundation of democracy.

Sund J. A. Pafford delivered the seventh grade certificates to thirty-three graduates, and J. H. Wyatt, chairman of the board of trustees, delivered the high school diplomas.

Howard Harrison, president of the class, gave a timely address on "Defense and Service."

Thus closed a successful, happy year in the Brooklet school.

Revival services at the Methodist church here will begin on June 16th, and continue for ten days. Rev. Albert Reese, of Savannah, will be the guest speaker. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

Teachers College To Have Practice School

The Georgia Teachers College will operate a demonstration school, including grades 1-7, the first six weeks of the summer session. The work will begin June 11th and end July 18th. There will be a daily session from 8:00 o'clock until 1:00 each day except Saturdays. Skilled teachers will be in charge of this program and a rich experience will be afforded these children who are in attendance. No children will be enrolled who expect to spend only a part of the time in attendance. Last summer there were so many children who wanted to take advantage of this opportunity that many were unable to enroll. Several were kept on the waiting list for the first week and finally got in.

There is no fee charged and transportation will be provided if required. Applications must be filed on or before June 1st. Parents who wish their children to attend may come in person to the office of Mr. Downs, or call over telephone 65-R.

SCHOOL CLOSED
Last week end and Monday night brought to a close one of the most successful years of the Brooklet High School.

Friday night Mrs. W. D. Lee presented her piano and violin pupils in a recital.

Sunday morning Rev. O. T. Sparrows, pastor of the Central Church of Christ in Savannah, delivered the baccalaureate sermon. He chose as his subject, "Goals for Our Lives," using as a text the thirteenth and fourteenth verses of the third chapter of Philippians. "But this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto these things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

Prominent on Monday night's program was an address given by W. B. Scott, of Savannah, clerk of the superior court. The speaker's subject was "Life At Its Best." "We want life at its best," said the speaker. "We do not want the disappointments, the sorrows, the strife of life, but we do desire life's best; and in order to have this best we must (1) possess knowledge; (2) we must retain it; (3) we must use it; (4) we must build constructively by thinking of high things; (5) we must have self-control; (6) we must be interested in life; (6) we must know real values."

Applicants must have had appropriate experience in the operation of electric tabulating or alphabetic tabulating machines.

Full information as to the requirements for these examinations, and application forms, may be obtained from D. B. Bule, secretary of the board of U. S. civil service examiners, at the post office in Statesboro, or from the secretary of the board of U. S. civil service examiners at any first or second-class post office.

Deals Are Winners
In Music Contest

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. William Deal, Statesboro young people who are completing their education and doing school work in Illinois, are invited to learn of the distinction which came to them in recognition of their musical talents during the past few days.

Instructor of music in the school at Crystal Lake, Ill., Mr. Deal carried two groups of young people, already winners in local and state events, to participate in national regional events, at Flint, and each group won distinction. The French Horn Quartet and the mixed chorus won second division honors, and the Clarinet Quartet won in the fourth division.

Mr. Deal, teaching at Crystal Lake, is working on his master's degree at Northwestern University. Mrs. Deal is teaching at Glenwood, Ill.

SUBMIT EVIDENCE GERMAN METHODS

Undisputed Proof of System
By Which Hitler Spies
Operate Through Nation

Kansas City, Mo., May 26.—With a ringing challenge, "We can do plenty about the Nazi Gestapo in America," Friends of Democracy this week published a spine-chilling document on the activities, here and abroad, of Hitler's secret police.

This 32-page document, released for publication here simultaneously with its release in New York, is the first detailed exposure given Americans of the creeping organization in the United States of the dread Gestapo, L. M. Kirkhead, national director, said to newspapermen this week.

Beards citing chapter and verse of the Nazi Gestapo's infiltration into the many walks of American life, the document of Friends of Democracy treats photographically and textually with the "Gestapo Scourge in Germany" and its terrorist acts in the "blinded" countries of Europe.

"Nazism and the Gestapo are interchangeable terms," National Director Kirkhead told newspapermen at national headquarters here.

"Friends of Democracy is convinced that these revelations will unite Americans to fight Nazism wherever its viciousness appears, so that we can again win Gestapo terrorism take root in this land of freedom."

Between Us

With the different seasons come different flowers, and these faithful gardeners who have worked so tirelessly all winter with Easter lilies, etc., are beginning to see the fruit of their efforts. One very new garden variety of having twelve buds on one stem. Surely no sight in Bulloch county is prettier right now than the fence leading up to the Deak's log cabin; yards and rows of varicolored roses have completely covered the fence, and the Deak's half way across one end of the big living room. Nearing completion, we are wondering just when they will have open house out there?—Speaking of new homes, Becky and Virgil Donaldson are building up North Main street, and the Harry Sacks over on Donaldson street. What pretty college freshmen living in town, but staying at the college, is wearing a beautiful new diamond? Black hair and very small, and he quite a decided brunette. Wedding bells will be ringing during the summer, so they say. Recently we referred to the pretty young man that was to be married on her mother's wedding anniversary; it was none other than Arabelle Jones, who is marrying in June. We know Arabelle, the new ring wearer will live in town—People are busy making plans for their summer vacations, and the trip is quite a bit in locations chosen. The Grady Attorneys are beginning an attractive beach home at Tybee, and hope it will be ready for occupancy by mid-summer. Several people have made plans to go to Florida, and the North Carolina mountains will receive their share of our people as they always do. But, with many more hot days to go through, soon the different ones will be on their way. The Shermans always plan such interesting trips, and this year is no exception. Last year they were in Canada and the New England states, and this summer they are going west. Their first stop will be in Denver, Colorado, where he will attend the International Rotary convention, and then go out on the West Coast. To make their trip more interesting, they travel by trailer, and they admit it's quite the best way to travel. It's one thing to go miles away from home and get a long distance call, and it's another to have to wait to talk to the one calling while the other is in the office. This week Mrs. Leon Donaldson has her very attractive sister visiting her from Alabama, and Sunday night her husband called from the Alabama city. Just as said "Hello," the sister went off and they had to stand and wait some five minutes while he continued sounding. But at least she was keeping up with the happening in her home town at the very minute, even though several hundred miles away. The new entrance column the Business Girls Club is putting on the highways into town are going to be quite a credit to our town. In relation to this and the other civic organizations in our town which are making it the best in the South. Will see you.

BACK TO HOSPITAL

Friends will regret that it was necessary for Allen Mikell to return to the Marine Hospital in Savannah last week.

HOME FOR DANCES

Mrs. Frances Deal, who teaches at Warren, spent the week end with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. B. A. Deal, and attended the Delta Sigma dances and banquet. She had as her guest Miss Tommy Gray, of Waynesboro. Johnny Deal, of Greensboro, was also the week-end guest of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Deal.

P.T.A. RECEPTION HONORS SENIORS

The P.T.A. reception, an annual affair given in honor of the seniors of the Statesboro High School, was a lovely event taking place Monday evening following the graduation exercises. The reception was given in the beautiful back garden of the home of the P.T.A. president, Mrs. Grady Johnston, and Mr. Johnston. Large baskets of cut flowers in pastel shades placed at intervals, added to the beauty of the natural setting. Misses Mary Frances Murphy, Redout Simons, Mary Ann Whitehurst and Virginia Dickson served punch from huge blocks of ice in which were frozen an arrangement of summer flowers. Sandwiches and cookies were also served by Mary John Johnston, Mrs. W. E. McDougald, Mrs. W. H. Blitch, Mrs. Arnold Anderson, Mrs. Bruce Olliff and Mrs. C. P. Olliff, chairman of the hospitality committee. Musical selections were rendered during the evening from the terrace by Mr. and Mrs. Marion Carpenter. More than three hundred guests attended, including the seniors and their parents, members of the city council and their wives, the ministers of the city and their wives, the high school faculty, junior officers, newspaper friends and little Lynn Smith as mascot.

ANDERSON—BARGERON

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Anderson announce the marriage of their daughter, Frances, to John H. Barger, of Millhaven and Statesboro, the impressive ring ceremony taking place Thursday evening, May 22, at the home of the bride's parents on Jones avenue, with the Rev. C. M. Coulson officiating in the presence of the immediate families.

The nuptials were spoken before an altar of green fern flanked by tall baskets of Easter lilies and feverfew. Silver bowls of pink and white cut flowers were arranged elsewhere in the home.

Carroll Barger, of Augusta, was the bride's best man. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in an ensemble of white French crepe, white accessories and a shoulder corsage of gardenias. Immediately following the ceremony the young couple left for a motor trip to the points in Florida. Mrs. Barger selected a tailored aqua non-crushable linen and white accessories for traveling. After this week they will be at home at 224 South Main street.

STATESBORO, GA., THURSDAY, JUNE 5, 1941

VOL. 50—NO. 18

VOTERS ENDORSE FOUR-YEAR TERM

State-Wide Amendments Given Majorities in The Tuesday General Election

Bulloch county voters at the polls Tuesday gave their approval to every proposed state-wide constitutional amendment. The majorities by which they were endorsed, however, varied greatly. For the four-year term the vote was 356 for, 261 against; majority, 95. The tax-exemption proposal received 422, against 78; majority for, 344.

With twelve districts in the county eight voted in favor of four-year term, and four against. Statesboro gave a majority of 30 in favor (165 to 135) for the four-year term.

On the subject of elections every four years, the vote in the county was 337-254, a majority of 83 for.

Districts voting in favor of four-year term were: Sinkhole, Lockhart, Statesboro, Bay, Brooklet, Elbert, Blitch, Portia; against were Register, Briarpatch, Hagin and Nevils.

SOLDIER CRUSHED BY MOVING TRUCK

Sgt. Schmitz Misses Hold As He Attempted To Board Swiftly Moving Vehicle

A soldier in uniform, Evi Schmitz, whose home was in Savannah, met with a serious injury Tuesday afternoon when he was fatally crushed beneath the wheels of the moving truck from which he had a few moments before alighted.

His official rank being technical sergeant and his outfit being the 45th Ordnance Department, stationed at Savannah Air Base.

Schmitz was a member of a group traveling in fifteen or more trucks enroute to Fort Benning. Stopping for a brief moment on the court house square, Schmitz and one other soldier alighted from their seats and rushed to the drug store for a cold drink. As the caravan quickly started in motion, the men ran forward to regain their places. Schmitz was seen to reach for his truck cab, but missed his hold, and fell. The truck passed over his body and he was crushed beneath the wheels. Still breathing, however, he was rushed to the Bulloch County Hospital, but was dead upon reaching there.

Acting upon instructions from superior officers, the officer in charge of the party directed Barnes Funeral Home to take care of the body, which was returned to Savannah.

Schmitz was understood to have been a resident of Savannah and had been in the army for number of years.

Other members of the entourage remained in camp at the local ball park Tuesday night.

CAUTION ABOUT USE SCREW WORM REMEDY

Diphenthamine, the new screw worm remedy, does not replace the tar and benzol.

Livestock owners are urged to continue using their 30 per cent benzol as in the past. In wounds freshly made enough diphenthamine in a finely powdered form should be used to cover the injured tissues completely.

After removing screw worms the new remedy should be applied freely as the killer for the flies and young worms.

Speaking of labor troubles, wouldn't it be terrible if someone were to organize a nation-wide taxpayers' strike?

WAS THIS YOU?

Look Tuesday afternoon you were seen in the postoffice dressed in a yellow frock made with a border; yellow skirt and bolero, with a white blouse; you wore a yellow ribbon in your dark hair. Your sandals and bag were white.

You had been asked to improve your personal appearance.

If the lady described will call
